-:About Utsab :-

Bharat Sanskriti Utsab organised by HAMS is an ISO 9001: 2015 certified Global Competition & Festival. It is also registered to MSME,(Govt. of India), certified from Central Vigilance Commission, (Govt. of India) & National Human Rights Commission of India, Govt. of India. Financially, it is supported by the Ministry of Culture, Govt. of India.

Bharat Sanskriti Utsab is a festival and a talent search program in the field of Indian art and culture, Indian classical music and folk song. It was started in 2009, in Burdwan Town, West Bengal. This festival is organized by Hindusthan Art & Music Society every year in the month of December . The program is judged by eminent personalities from the field of art and music. The 12 days long carnival is a vibrant platform that provides an insight of the rich art and culture of India. The festival has gradually reached its zenith over the years and it is on 2022 that the festival is going to celebrate its 15th grand year. It is gradually gaining its importance in West Bengal and is soon going to be a very popular cultural program in the State attracting thousands of audiences every year. It is one of the most eagerly awaited festivals celebrated from the Third week December at Burdwan, West Bengal & Fourth week at Kolkata every year.

-:Aims and Objectives :-

Our organization is dedicated in promoting, preserving and presenting the Indian traditional art and culture through the following programs:

1. Support and nurture young talents from the fields of arts, crafts and museum through Awards and Fellowships.
2. Host residency programs as a way of supporting and helping artists, writers, scholars and creative individuals to strengthen their practice.
3. Increase the appreciation of Indian traditional crafts among masses through the collections at the Museum of Everyday Arts of India, Museum of Indian Terracotta and the Museum of Indian Textiles.
4. To develop and nurture appreciation of Indian arts and crafts through the educational programs,

-: An Appeal :-

We are going to host Bharat Sanskriti Utsav 2022 (15th All India Indian Classical Music, Dance, Folk Dance , Fine Arts & Recitation Competition & 33rd International Festival of Indian Art & Culture ) from 14th to 18th December 2022 at Town Hall Maidan, Sanskriti Lokomancha, Zila Parishad Bhavan Auditorium, Burdwan, Purba Barddhaman, W.B, & from 23rd to 30th December 2022 at Satyajit Roy Auditorium, Bengal Gallery, ICCR, Kolkata, West Bengal, India.

We are preparing and looking forward to give you a red carpet welcome. It may sound unbelievable but true you might have not witnessed such a colorful and glorious event anywhere else in India as you would enjoy here in West Bengal in coming in December 2022.

Corporate Social Responsibility

Philosophy

HAMS being a society promoting the Indian art and culture imparts quality education and training in the subjects of Indian Classical Music including Carnatic Music (Vocal & Instrumental), Classical Dances (e.g. Kathak, Bharatnatyam, Odissi) and Fine Arts (Painting, Recitation). It recognizes the importance of community resources and therefore aims to provide societal sustainability to the community. HAMS envisions that its aim of reviving the status of Indian art and culture would be enhanced through the support provided to the economically, socially and psychologically backward people of the community.

CSR Target

The CSR activity of HAMS is initiated for 3 groups of people. It is targeted at

- The Slum children.
- The physically disabled children.
- The economically backward young talents.

Activity Description

HAMS endeavors to promote an all round development of the physically handicapped as well as socially backward students such as the slum dwellers through the means of vocational education and training of music and other forms of art. A special interest in the well being and the recreation facility for such children are assisted by HAMS both physically and psychologically. HAMS also embeds the path for financially disabled but talented young minds to step forward towards success in the field of art and culture through every means of assistance. It provides instruments to such talented students who are economically deprived.

CSR Activity Location

The CSR activity by HAMS is undertaken in the entire India supporting the economically, physically and socially unprivileged students through the means of vocational education and training in the field of Indian art and culture.
